Paris-Munich Quantum Workshop

📍 FIAP, 30 rue Cabanis, Paris 14e

☀️ The workshop brings together researchers from two quantum hubs, the Paris region and Munich.

The aim is to present the latest advances in quantum science and technology, strengthen existing collaborations and create new ones, and encourage the mobility of PhD students and postdocs between the two communities.

Registration

December, 15th - 16th

Workshop: Spins in Paris

📍 Centre J.W Boyer, Paris

☀️ The workshop will bring together the community studying spin coupling in solids and quantum superconducting circuits. It is the 14th in a series that has taken place every year since 2010, in different locations.
